Exploring "Community Making"

Come learn about Ethnic, Gender, Transborder Studies and Sociology at Pima Community College and explore this year's summit topic "Community Making." Join our students, scholars and community members to see what they are "making" in the community.

7th Annual Ethnic, Gender, Transborder Studies and Sociology Summit

8 a.m. – 5 p.m.
April 28, 2023

Amethyst Room,
Downtown Campus
1255 N. Stone Ave.

Free and open to the public

"Con la comunidad para la comunidad."

The keynote speaker is Felicia 'Fe' Montes, M.A., M.F.A. She is a Xicana Indigenous holistic activist, femcee, designer, poet, professor and practitioner of the healing arts from East Los Angeles. She is the co-founder and coordinator of Mujeres de Maiz, In Lak Ech, Botanica del Barrio and El MERCADO y Mas. Having organized, performed at and presented at hundreds of campuses and community spaces, Montes is known throughout the Southwest as an established Xicana cultural worker of a new generation.
