

Handout 1: What Did You Learn 2Day?

PURPOSE:

You still may not know exactly what you want to be. You've already read this sentence more than a couple of times, but it's probably still true. It is important for you to realize that you don't need to know yet. But take this into consideration: everyone you meet can talk to you about what they do and how they go there. So don't miss an opportunity to learn about somebody else's career or job; it may just be the right fit for you!

Today you either spent a few hours among the Health Sciences Buildings, or around Fine Arts & Music Buildings or Engineering buildings. Half of your group members were not with you. Take this time to practice interviewing each other, and figuring out if you would like to see what some of your classmates saw.

DIRECTIONS:

1. Take two minutes and come up with three good interview questions to ask the classmates at your table that went on a different tour than you did. Write the questions below in the space provided.
2. Once everyone is done, take turns asking each other one question at a time, or conduct one interview at a time. It is your choice to make as a group.
3. Begin the interviews. Remember to:
 - a. Formally introduce yourself.
 - b. Ask permission for the interview.
 - c. Take notes in a manner that is polite to the interview candidate.
4. Don't forget to answer the question at the bottom of the page.
