

EMANCIPATORY EDUCATION

Graduate Minor

The Emancipatory Education graduate minor is designed to support P-20 educational leaders—including teachers, faculty, administrators, policymakers, and community-based advocates—in developing liberatory approaches to education that benefit all students. This minor emphasizes transformative educational praxis, encouraging students to move beyond identifying systemic challenges and toward generating solutions to improve educational systems and practices.

Register here

Sample Courses

EDL 627

Leadership for Educational and Organizational Change

Fall 2025

Mon 4:15 - 6:45pm
Main Campus

TLS 503A

Critical Youth
Studies

Fall 2025

TU 4:15-6:45PM
Main Campus