YOU'RE INVITED!

A Special Interactive Session with Erik Weihenmayer

Hosted by the Department of Disability and Psychoeducational Studies

Location: Education North, Room 111

Date & Time: Thursday, May 15 | 10:30 AM – 11:45 AM

Erik Weihenmayer, renowned blind mountaineer, author, and motivational speaker; is visiting the University of Arizona as our Spring Convocation Keynote Speaker. Erik is the first blind person to summit Mount Everest and has inspired people across the world through his story of perseverance and triumph.

This interactive session is designed especially for:

- Students with visual impairments (Arizona School for the Blind, Tucson Unified, Marana Unified, etc.)
- University students, faculty, and researchers

Join us to:

- Hear Erik's incredible journey firsthand
- Engage in a meaningful discussion on overcoming challenges
- Connect with others passionate about accessibility and possibility
